

Psalm 2300 - verses*

T.Berger & L.Collingridge

Chant with minimal chordal accompaniment

C Am

1. Ho ly Wis-dom is my o - cean, I shall de - sire

G

noth - ing less. She makes me lie down in warm sands;

C Am

She leads me be - side sooth - ing shore - lines She re -

E m G

stores my e - ner - gy for life; She leads me in paths of flour

A m G

- - - ri - shing for the sake of her own Di - vine

Antiphon C

- life. 2. Yes, e - ven when swim - ming through trea - che - rous waves

A m G

- with hid - den rip cur - rents, I will fear no e -

C A m

vil. For you are with me, You my com - fort,

G Antiphon C

my one true com - pass. 3. You pre - pare an is - land of de - light for me; You an - noint my bo - dy with la - vish oils;

A m

Psalm 2300

my cup o - ver - flows. Antiphon C
4. Sure ly the rhy - thm of your o - cean will follow me _____ all the days - - - of my _____ life. A m E m A m
I will dwell _____ deep wi - thin God's own wa - ters for - e - ver. G Antiphon

*The chant melody is based on psalm tone 8. The antiphon should be sung twice at the beginning, once with the melody in unison and subsequently using the 4 part arrangement. The antiphon should be sung after each verse as is usual.